Part 1.

ITALIAN LITERATURE

AND

The Twelve Great Masterpieces in Art.

"Knowst thou the land where the fair citron blows,
Where the bright orange midst the foliage glows,
Where soft winds greet us from the azure skies,
Where silent myrtles, stately laurels rise,
Knowst thou it well? 'Tis there, 'tis there,
That I, with thee, beloved one would repair!"

—Goethe.

Part 2.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

"The wisest man may be wiser today than he was yesterday, and tomorrow than he is today."

Constitution.

ARTICLE 1. This organization shall be known as "THE WOMAN'S TUESDAY CLUB" of Henderson, N. C. Its object shall be the literary culture of its members.

ART. 2. The membership of this Club shall be limited to twenty. A candidate for membership must be nominated by ballot at a regular meeting, and at a subsequent regular meeting, two-thirds of the membership being present, must receive a unanimous vote to become a member.

ART. 3. The Officers of this Club shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer, and two Referees, nominated and elected annually by ballot at the first regular meeting in December. The persons receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected. The President shall preside at all meetings of the club, and perform all obligations of the office according to parliamentary usage. The Vice-Presidents shall serve in the absence of the President according to seniority. The Secretary shall call the roll, record and read the minutes of each meeting of the club, collect all moneys, and pay over all funds to the Treasurer, taking receipts therefor. The Treasurer shall be custodian of all funds of the Club, shall keep in a book provided for that purpose an accurate account of all the receipts and expenditures, and shall quarterly or at any time required by the Club, make a full report. The Referees shall decide all questions on pronunciation or other questions upon which the club may desire information, according to the highest obtainable authority, and shall report on the same before the Club at the succeeding meeting.

ART. 4. There shall be a Program Committee, consisting of five members, nominated and elected by ballot annually at the first regular meeting in December. The Program Committee shall furnish next year's program on or before the last meeting in May.

ART. 5. There shall be an Executive Committee of three persons, appointed by the President annually at the meeting following the regular election of officers, of which the Treasurer shall be ex-officio, a member. The Executive Committee shall transact any necessary business for the Club and perform such duties as usually belong to such committees.

ART. 6. The Annual Session of this Club shall be from September until June. Regular Meetings shall be held on alternate Tuesday afternoons, beginning with the second Tuesday in September and ending with the last meeting in May.

ART. 7. Two weeks' notice of an amendment to the Constitution must be given at a regular meeting, and its adoption shall require a two-thirds vote of the existing membership.

By-Laws.

SECTION 1. All members present are entitled to vote.

SEC. 2. The names proposed for admission to the Club shall be presented to the Secretary, enrolled and read at the time the vote is taken. Nominations from that list shall be made by ballot at any regular meeting following the one at which a vacancy is announced. The person receiving the greatest number of votes becomes the nominee. At the first subsequent regular meeting at which a two-thirds vote of the existing membership is represented, if a unanimous vote is cast for the nominee, she becomes a member; otherwise there is no election, and at the next regular meeting nominations are again in order. The same candidate is eligible for renomination.

SEC. 3. A copy of the Constitution shall accompany notification of election to membership. Such notification shall be made in writing by the Secretary.

SEC. 4. The hour for regular meeting shall be appointed by the President. The President shall call a special meeting at the request of five members.

SEC. 5. Eleven members shall constitute a quorum and shall have free power to act for the Club except in amending the constitution and in electing members. The Literary program may be given without a quorum.

SEC. 6. Three successive absences without excuse shall cause forfeiture of membership; but the Secretary must notify the delinquent member before the third absence that her name will be dropped from the roll unless an excuse be presented at the next meeting.

SEC. 7. Resignations must be sent in writing to the Secretary and be formally accepted by the Club before the place is declared vacant.

SEC. 8. If refreshments be served they must be limited to one course and wine must be excluded.

SEC. 9. Special Committees may be appointed by the President for specified duties.

SEC. 10. Each member shall perform the duty assigned her or pay a fine of one dollar. In case of illness, instead of paying the fine she may provide a substitute who must be a member of the Club.

SEC. 11. Each member shall pay an annual fee of $1.00 on or before the first meeting in March.

SEC. 12. The Club shall be governed by Shattuck's Rules of Order. Officers are required to familiarize themselves with the same.

SEC. 13. By-Laws may be changed at any regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of existing membership.

SEC. 14. The hostess shall be notified of inability to attend not later than the morning of the day of meeting.
